Joint / Shared Custody Transportation Safety Plan (JSCTS Plan)

Students will be responsible for boarding the right bus and getting off at the right location without any assistance from the school or bus driver. Parents/Guardians must provide a student safety plan to be used in the event a student boards the wrong bus and is transported to the wrong location for that day. Parents are responsible for the safety of their children prior to the bus pick up and following the drop off at either location.

A) How will your child(ren) know which bus to get on and/or which stop to get off at?

B) Parents/Guardian what is your student safety plan in case your child(ren) get(s) dropped off at a wrong location on a wrong day (i.e. student has a cell phone, neighbour)

The Waterloo Catholic District School Board (WCDSB), the Waterloo Region District School Board (WRDSB) and Student Transportation Services of Waterloo Region Inc. (STSWR) are not responsible, in any way, for the safety or well-being of students, of any age, once they have been dropped off by a school bus. The parent(s) or guardian(s) of a student are directly and wholly responsible for that student's safety and well-being once they have been dropped off. Under no circumstances shall the WCDSB, the WRDSB or the STSWR be held liable, in any way, for the personal injury, including death, of a student once they have been dropped off by a school bus or for any damage to that student's personal property, howsoever caused.
